The Class of 1957

Presents

The Red Devil

We, the class of '57, invite you--parents, faculty, and students--to step through these doors and recall with us memories of the school year '56 and '57.

We hope as you look through this yearbook you can share with us the fun, hopes, successes--even the disappointments--we have known.

DEDICATION

To our Mothers and Fathers whose sacrifice, guidance and toil have enabled us to attain our first pinnacle of success.

Of Hillsboro High School

CHARLES MOORE
A.B., M.A.

Marshall College
U. of Virginia

The story is told of the front line Korean soldier, who was asked what he wanted most. His answer was, "Give me tomorrow."

It is my earnest wish that we here at Hillsboro High School have given the departing seniors many happy tomorrows.

Class History

In September 1953, a group of happy students entered a new school of learning, known as Hillsboro High School. We found that the beginning of our freshman year didn't give us the "Big feeling" which we had anticipated, because we were looked down upon by the upperclassmen. We really felt like "Greenies" at times. For our officers we chose: President, David May; Vice-President, Delores Arbogast; Secretary and Reporter, Martha McNeel; Treasurer, Jane Ruckman. Our sponsor was Mrs. Peggy Brill. David May represented our class on the yearbook staff.

After the freshman initiation (during which the girls dressed like boys, and boys dressed like girls) we felt as though we had been "accepted" into high school.

We entered our sophomore year in the fall of 1954 feeling much better now that we had grown accustomed to the high school routine. Our class officers were: President, Martha McNeel; Vice-President, Eugene King; Secretary, Delores Arbogast; Treasurer, Patsy Lewis; Reporter, Jane Ruckman. Mrs. Brill was again our sponsor.

We initiated the freshmen and were glad to be on the "giving" and not the "receiving" side of the initiation. During the year Martha McNeel and Jane Ruckman were chosen high school cheerleaders. Martha McNeel was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen.

When we entered our third year of high school as "Jolly Juniors" we elected as President, Patsy Lewis; Vice-President, Martha McNeel; Secretary, Janice McCoy; Treasurer, Delores Arbogast; Reporter, Jane Ruckman; Representatives to the yearbook staff, Delores Arbogast and Jane Ruckman. Ten of our members were taken into the National Honor Society; Delores Arbogast, Kenneth Cook, Patsy Lewis, David May, Janice McCoy, Ralph McKeever, Martha McNeel, Roger Pritt, Jane Ruckman, and Sandra Smith. Linda Starks was an attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Garnett McCoy, Janice McCoy, Betty McMillion, and Jerry Rose were band majorettes; Martha McNeel and Linda Barcroft were high school cheerleaders. David May and Martha McNeel attended "Know Your State Government Day." Pete Rose represented our class at Boys' State. Mrs. Brill left us that year. In her place we received and welcomed Mr. Jack Tennant from Fairview, West Virginia. We got our long awaited class rings the first of January and gave our very successful play "The Big Blow-Up" February 29.

On September 5, 1956, we once more entered the doors of "Good Ole H.H.S.," but this was our last one as we were now what we had wanted to be for about eleven years -- "Dignified"?? Seniors!! We chose the following officers: President, David May; Vice-President, Roger Pritt; Secretary, Jane Ruckman; Treasurer, Delores Arbogast; Reporter, Ralph McKeever. Mr. Tennant had decided he'd rather go to college than be our sponsor, so we welcomed Mrs. Payne and Mrs. McLaughlin as our sponsors. Pete Rose and Ralph McKeever were football captains this year. Martha McNeel was high school cheerleader and F.F.A. Sweetheart. Delores Arbogast was chosen Homecoming Queen. Garnett McCoy, Janice McCoy, and Jerry Rose were again majorettes.

As this yearbook goes to press, we hope that these students who are now seniors will graduate in May. We are looking forward to our trip to Washington next spring and many other activities.

PAT LEWIS is a cute little girl;
Because of a Rose her head does whirl.

SAMUEL SEABOLT is a boy in our class
Whose favorite feat is driving fast.

"JERRY" ROSE is light-hearted and lots of fun;
She's liked by all students, yes, everyone.

GENE KING teases all the girls;
Especially those with lots of curls.

A music lover is MARTHA MC NEEL;
A letter to Jack she often does seal.

RAYMOND SCOTT is a big tease;
Around girls he is always at ease.

CHRISTINA KELLISON is our girl athlete;
A friendly person, you really should meet.

CLAUDE SIMMONS is slender and tall;
He never gets trampled in the hall.

WANDA PYLES is little, but we hope she'll succeed;
Be happy, be earnest, we find is her creed.

DEROTHA SHARP is a black-headed lass;
She tries to be helpful in every class.

DELORES ARBOGAST likes to eat;
Her favorite food is anything sweet.

A quiet boy is RALPH MC KEEVER
He really is an eager beaver.

To be a secretary is DORIS DORMAN'S desire;
boss never would fire.

Oh! Here's a lad who deserves all good;
ROGER PRITT works with industry as all students should.

ANNE RUCKMAN is jolly, kind, and true;
She's willing to help til all is through.

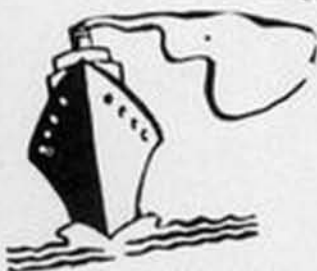

"PETE" ROSE is the class Romeo;
As our All-American he'll be a big show.

The brain of the class is DAVID MAY;
This knowledge with him we hope will stay.

They say he's a "dear-slayer", and true it must be;
For with all the ladies, STANLEY HALL frolics with glee.

WALTER DOLAN, a sailor wants to be;
One who'll sail each and every sea.

EDDIE ROCK is a friendly lad;
His class ring is a "Pyles" fad.

JACKIE HOLLANDSWORTH is a student in shop;
With all his ideas he'll go to the top.

SHIRLEY DEAN is quiet, patient, and in everything tries;
By these very virtues in life she will rise.

SAM PUFFENBARGER is quiet and shy;
He's one who always says, "I'll try".

So quiet, so meek, so gentle withal;
ED WILEY is liked by his classmates all.

GARNETT MC COY is a beautiful brunette;
Someday she'll be a famed majorette.

ELIZABETH STARKS is a girl in town;
Almost anywhere she can be found.

This lass has been faithful thru all four years;
IANICE MC COY'S smile is the kind which always cheers.

The Big Blow-Up

February 29, 1956

Prophecy

It was a cold, dreary night with the wind blowing and the rain beating against the window panes. I had just gone home from the Portland University Hospital in Oregon where I had been head nurse for fifteen years.

As I sat by the cozy fireplace, rocking back and forth, suddenly I realized that I was growing old, and my thoughts returned to my old classmates of Hillsboro High School. I began to reminisce and soon it seemed I was in Hillsboro. But my! How it had changed! Tall buildings, hotels, and restaurants. A real city! It was about noon when I arrived so I decided to go into "The Palace Restaurant" to get something to eat. Christina Kellison greeted me, as she was head waitress. She told me the restaurant was owned by Ralph McKeever. She told him I was there. I talked to Ralph for a while and he said he had seen several of his classmates since he had been there.

I left Ralph and while walking down the street, I decided to buy a newspaper. Roger Pritt was the editor and the name of his paper was "The Hillsboro News." As I read down through the paper I found "Hollandsworth's Corner" by Jackie Hollandsworth. He had become a writer for the paper. As I read further I saw "Don't Miss, 'The Voice at Twilight'", starring Raymond Scott. Raymond always did want to be a big movie or television star. I decided to go to this movie.

While I was there, I enjoyed wonderful music before the show, which was furnished by Martha McNeel, the famous pianist.

After the movie I was feeling sleepy and tired so I decided to stay at "The Blue Inn"; to my surprise the owner was Doris Ann Dorman. She told me that Samuel Seabolt was a driver in the stock car races and Samuel Puffenbarger was the owner of the new meat market that had just been built. While we were talking, Doris had a new customer who happened to be Garnett McCoy. She said she was now an airline hostess and was taking a vacation. She also told us that Janice McCoy was a WAF and was making a career of it. We parted for the night as it was getting late.

The next day I decided to buy some clothes. I went into "Madam Delores' Clothes," a shop owned by Delores Arbogast. Jeraldine Rose was her model. While I was deciding what clothes to buy we talked about the people we knew in Hillsboro. Delores said she read in the paper that Walter Dolan was prospecting for gold in the hills of Wyoming, and Eddie Rock owned the "Double R Ranch" in Texas and was very successful. I thanked Delores for all of her information and left to see who else I could find. I went into a green house and found Wanda Pyles and Shirley Dean were partners and were raising many beautiful and odd plants. I bought a beautiful orchid and went on my way.

I now decided to visit the school. I found David May as principal and Derotha Sharp as his secretary. He told me that Pete Rose was a very famous ballplayer for the Yankees and Eugene King was manager. Jane Ruckman just then stepped into the office. She was now teaching math at Hillsboro High School.

I knew that there were still a few people I hadn't seen, but I wanted to visit the Astronomy Center at Greenbank. Here I found Edward Wiley, a famous scientist, and Claude Simmons, a workman there. He told me that Elizabeth Starks lived in Greenbank where she had a job of baby-sitting, and that Stanley Hall was working in an automobile factory in New Jersey. I left them and started back to my car -- but there I was sitting by my fireplace. I had been dreaming -- not in Hillsboro. Never in my life had I been so homesick and sad, so I, at once, prepared to leave in the morning for my home in Hillsboro and really find out about my classmates.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-seven, of Hillsboro High School, being of sound mind and judgement (?), do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our "Last Will and Testament."

I, Doris Dorman, will to Jane Pyles, some tar and gravel to use in fixing the road, so the boys can get over it more swiftly.

Shirley Dean wills to Phyllis Brock a pencil so that she can write to David Dilley.

I, David May, will to Dee Burns my ability to stay skinny.

I, Raymond Scott, will to Mr. Anderson, a paddle, so that he won't be borrowing somebody's belt to use.

I, Edward Wiley, will to Sammy Arbogast a girdle so that his stomach won't hang over.

Christina Kellison wills to Linda McMillion a plastic heart so that Dale won't break it.

I, Samuel Seabolt, will to Arden Wimer my ability to keep out of trouble during school hours.

Janice McCoy wills to Calvin Kershner and Gerald Gladwell a box of wheaties so they will grow strong enough to play on the first team next year.

I, Jane Ruckman, will to Lucy Jane Cutlip my ability to be a high school cheerleader, since I didn't get to use all of it.

I, Walter Dolan, will to Calvin Kershner my ability to play football.

I, Delores Arbogast, will to Edith Farmer my patience and the ability to control my temper while working on the year book, hoping that she will make use of it next year.

Derotha Sharp wills to Wanda Sharp her ability to get along with other people.

Garnett McCoy wills to Calvin Kershner a car, so that he won't have to borrow Hobert's when he wants to go to Mill Point.

I, Martha McNeel, will to David Kellison a car, so that he can go when he wants to and where he wants to.

Pete Rose wills his ability to play football to Dow Ray.

To Lanty McNeel, Stanley Hall wills two shoe boxes to wear when his feet outgrow his shoes.

I, Elizabeth Starks, will to Leo Dean a picture of me since I won't be here for him to stare at next year.

Eddie Rock wills to Daniel Hollandsworth a car so he won't have to borrow Bob's car when he wants to go to Marlinton.

I, Wanda Pyles, will to Velma Morrison my ability to graduate.

I, Samuel Puffenbarger, will a roll of adhesive tape to Karol Puffenbarger so he will learn how and when to talk to people without being all mouth.

I, Patsy Lewis, will to Agnes Simmons my ability to drive so that The Seebert Lane won't get lonesome without me.

Jerry Rose wills to Earl Lawson a car, so that he won't have to walk to see his girl friend.

In testimony hereof, we herewith place our seal and signature as the Senior Class of Hillsboro High School.
